The Fort Mason Foundation, a privately-funded nonprofit organization, is engaged in renovating surplus military buildings at Fort Mason, headquarters of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. The Foundation administers Fort Mason Center which is located on the Bay between Aquatic Park and the Marina Green. In less than three years, the Center has become a national model for low-cost community-responsive urban parks.

We invite you to bring your conferences, classes, performances, meetings or benefits to Fort Mason. Space for suitable activities is available for a nominal daily or hourly fee. Enjoy the pleasure of teaching, working, or performing in this unusual national park location. Call 441-5706 for booking appointments and information.

MAKE-A-CIRCUS IN PIER 2

On the weekend of August 21 & 22, Make-A-Circus will perform for the 1st time at Fort Mason Center. This unusually delightful performance company has had its administrative offices at the Fort Mason Center since 1980, but has never seized the opportunity to make use of its Pier facility.

The Make-A-Circus performance, lavishly equipped with aerial rigging, colorful costumes, a four piece jazz band, and a good deal of excitement, is a veritable treat. Every year a different theme is chosen, relevant to young peoples' lives. The current production takes a whimsical look at the world invaded by garbage, lost in the clutches of the villainous Phineas T. Disposall and his wasteful ways. Strangers from another planet and bag lady clowns—swept up in a whirl of juggling, acrobatics, ropewalking, unicycling, and daring aerial acts—combat this evil mastermind in the true Make-A-Circus spirit.

Make-A-Circus was founded in San Francisco in 1975 with the intention of bringing free, participatory entertainment into low income communities. Over the years it has evolved to include a circus show and workshops of the highest professional standards, while still maintaining its original goals and concerns.

8/21,22 Make-A-Circus

The Fort Mason performance will mark Make-A-Circus' first Bay Area weekend showing ever. Show times are at 2pm and 7:30pm on Saturday and 2pm on Sunday. Following the matinees workshops in circus skills will be taught to children in attendance. The Saturday evening performance will serve as a benefit fundraiser for Feedback Productions, Make-A-Circus' parent organization. Admission to these events is $1.00 for children, $2.00 for adults, Group Rates are available. Call 776-8477 for more information or inquire about the complete summer schedule.

WHO'S DANCING THESE DAYS

Everyone seems to be dancing these days: classes in jazz, tap, modern, ballet and ethnic dance of all varieties abound throughout the Bay Area. At Fort Mason, there are numerous classes for aerobic and exercise fans each week (see Classes & Workshop section, Health and Recreation).

For information on dance classes for adults and children in any style anywhere in the Bay Area, the San Francisco Bay Area Dance Coalition is the place to call. Located in Room 265, Building C, the Dance Coalition is a 9-year old membership service organization which assists, represents, and promotes the dance community of the 9 Bay Area counties.

And what an active community it is! There are more dance companies and dancers in the greater Bay Area than in any other part of the country ouside of New York City. Over 100 companies and schools and 500 individuals belong to the Coalition.

The Dance Coalition publishes a monthly Dance Performance Calendar/Newsletter, maintains a Resource Center, rents low-cost equipment, produces monthly informal dance concerts, and provides consulting in a wide variety of topics to dancers and companies.

Each summer, the Coalition produces a major dance showcase in San Francisco. "DanceMakers '82," the Coalition's 5th Annual Choreographer's Series, brings together 18 talented Bay Area artists for three weekends of performances this July and August.

"DanceMakers '82" offers audiences a very special opportunity to see a range of some of the best Bay Area dance. Included in the programs are: ballet, modern, jazz, performance art, and pieces choreographed in the dance tradtions of other cultures.

"DanceMakers '82" runs July 21-24 at the Margaret Jenkins Dance Studio in the Mission District, and July 31 and August 7 at the Herbst Theatre in the Civic Center. For further information or ticket reservations, call the Dance Coalition at 673-8172 or stop by the office in Building C, room 265.

THE FAIR AT SAN FRANCISCO

THE FAIR AT SAN FRANCISCO is the new name for the Pacific States Crafts Fair, the largest show of contemporary crafts held annually on the West Coast. Sponsored and organized by the American Crafts Council, THE FAIR AT SAN FRANCISCO is a nationally acclaimed exposition of the work of 350 select artisans to be presented in Pier 2 and 3, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 13, 14 and 15 from 10am-6pm.

The crafts of 1,200 artisans were reviewed by a committee of recognized craft authorities and craftsmen/exhibitors elected by their peers. Using five projectors and special equipment, the committee viewed each artist's work as a whole, eliminating the possibility of judging individual pieces. The competition was open to the entire country though most of the artists selected are from the Western states.

Serious collectors of hand-woven and painted clothing, jewelry, baskets, etched, sandblasted and blown glass will discover a greater selection at the FAIR this year. Wood, too, is one of the growth areas, both in number of artists and in quality of craft. Intricately hewn furniture, sculpture, toys, tableware, and heretofore unexplored uses of wood will delight the connoisseur.

Ceramicists have gone far beyond the traditional with new or revived techniques, such as smoke-fired pottery trimmed with foreign materials, or pottery fired with heat of sawdust instead of gas or electricity.

Color has made a leap in other crafts as well. The use of color-producing heat-sensitive metals and the move away from brown and burgundy to grays, greens and blues in leather dramatically evidence the change. A brilliant spectrum of hues is at a peak in the glass and fiber categories, two popular crafts of bold experimentation in the Bay Area.

Admission to the public is $3.00. Children under 12 will be admitted without charge. There is also FREE shuttle bus service from Crissy Field to Fort Mason.

WORLD MUSIC NETWORK

Remember the Center for World Music. Remember all those great concerts on Saturday nights with music and dance from Africa, India, South America, Indonesia, China. Remember the incredible solo flute performance by the great Japanese shakuhachi player.

It's all happening again! The World Music Network is here and the shows are starting again this month. The African Music And Dance Ensemble will perform August 14, 8pm in Building C. You will hear and see the traditions of West Africa in a lively knock-out show. C.K. Ladzekpo, the director, from Ghana, will do a special presentation on "Talking Drums."

The following Saturday, August 21, there will be a benefit performance for the World Music Network with Middle Eastern, Japanese and Indian music. JAZAYER, the well-known Middle Eastern group, will perform music ranging from classical music of the Turkish-Arab tradition to urban music of Egypt and Lebanon to folk and popular tunes of Turkey, Armenia and Arab countries.

WAKAMISU, a traditional Japanese music ensemble will perform the poetic and moving music of the koto (silk-stringed zither), shamisen (three-stringed, plucked instrument), and shakuhachi (bamboo flute).

The Ali Akbar College Ensemble, students of the great Indian sarod master Ali Akbar Khan, will round out the evening with a contemporary ensemble of Indian and Western instruments, using some Western musical notions in a traditional Indian format.

Starting in September, you can look forward to performances every Saturday night. I hope to see you there!
